

Isaiah Salvation by the Servant of the Lord

Title: The Vision of Isaiah about Judah and Jerusalem

Prophecies Against Judah and Jerusalem (1:2-12:6)

- Babylon will be desolate (13:1-14:27) (1:2-6:16)
• Moab lamented for her doom (15:1-16:14) (7:1-12:6)
- Ethiopia destroyed [w/ hope] (18:1-7) • Egypt confounded [w/ hope] (19:1-20:6)
- Babylon's fall restated (21:1-10) • Edom is threatened (21:11,12)
- Arabia set for calamity (21:13-17) • Jerusalem will be invaded (22:1-25)
- Tyre will be overthrown (23:1-18)

The Apocalypse of Isaiah (24:1-27:13)

- God's judgment for sin but a remnant will survive (24:1-23)
- The remnant praise God for His judgment and deliverance (25:1-12)
- A song of rejoicing and an exhortation to faith (26:1-21)
- The discipline and deliverance of God's people to worship (27:1-13)

Oracles of Woe to Unbelievers in Israel (28:1-33:24)

- The self-indulgent nation judged & remnant secure on the stone in Zion (28:1-29)
- The blind nation judged & sanctified for blessing (29:1-24)
- The faithless nation rebuked & called to faith (30:1-22)
- A call to trust God alone and not foreign alliances (31:1-32:20)
- Judgment on the enemies of Israel & blessing on believers in Israel (33:1-24)

The Day of Judgment of the Day of God's Glory (34:1-35:10)

- The destruction of Gentiles powers is certain (34:1-17)
- The blessing for the the redeemed is peace and prosperity (29:1-24)

The Book of Hezekiah: An Historical Transition

- Sennacherib's invasion and Judah's deliverance by prayer (36:1-37:38)
- Hezekiah's sickness and the King's deliverance by prayer (38:1-22)
- Hezekiah's pride and the Babylonian captivity prophesied (39:1-8)

The Promise and Purpose of Peace (40:1-48:22)

- Prologue: God comes to Zion bringing comfort for God's people (40:1-11)
- The certainty of the LORD's promises of victory (40:12-31)
- The nations are helpless, idols are worthless, God is redeemer of Israel (41:1-29)
- The Servant of the LORD raised up by the Incomparable Savior- the LORD (42:1-25)
- The Servant of the LORD will judge sin and idolatry (43:1-44:23)
- God will use Cyrus to bring the Gentiles into submission (44:24-45:25)
- The fall of Babylon and their idols is inevitable (46:1-47:15)
- Exhortation for Israel to remember God's love (48:1-22)

The Prince of Peace (49:1-55:13)

- The Messiah brings light to Gentiles and restoration to Israel (49:1-26)
- The comfort and splendor of everlasting salvation from God's wrath (51:1-52:12)
- The suffering and glory of the LORD's righteous Servant (52:13-53:12)
- The future glory of Jerusalem blessed with redemption and dominion (54:1-17)
- Invitation to seek the LORD while He is available (55:1-13)

The Program of Peace beyond the Exile (56:1-66:24)

- An invitation for outsiders (Gentiles) to come to trust the LORD (56:1-8)
- Condemnation of wicked leaders and corrupt idolaters in the remnant (56:9-57:21)
- The LORD will guide His people when they forsake rituals and worship him (58:1-14)
- After sin is exposed and confession Israel will be redeemed by covenant (59:1-21)
- The Glory of Zion provides access to the Gentiles (60:1-22)
- Messiah will be filled with the Spirit to provide redemption and deliverance (61:1-11)
- A prayer for the redemption and restoration of Jerusalem (62:1-12)
- A vision of God's vengeance and redemption (63:1-6)
- Praise and prayer in light of the judgment and provision of the LORD (63:7-19)
- In light of God's mercy Israel will confess their sin (64:1-12)
- God will judge rebels and save the righteous to a new heaven and earth (65:1-25)
- The LORD will judge sin and comfort the worshipping remnant with hope (66:1-24)

1:1 1:2

Judgment of Nation and Nations

39:8

Deliverance by Messiah

55:13

56:1

Program of Peace

66:24

1:1 1:2

THE BOOK OF JUDGMENT

39:8

40:1

THE BOOK OF COMFORT

66:24

In a series of visions [spanning nearly 60 years (742 BC-680 BC) during the Assyrian conquest of Israel and the Babylonian rise to power and threat to Judah], Isaiah revealed that judgment would come on the nation because of a failure to keep the covenant but promised that God would deliver the nation through a Messianic deliverer—the Servant of the LORD and Prince of Peace—who would bring in a time of kingdom blessing characterized by peace in order to encourage pre-exilic people to turn back to God and live holy lives in faithfulness to the covenant and exilic people to return to the land from Babylon as God's covenant people.

KEN WILSON 2023